

SAGE Citizen Project

Building Stronger Communities— One Conversation at a Time

SAGE's Citizen Project brings people together across differences through events and initiatives that foster civil dialogue and collaborative problem solving.

How We Work

Bring People Together

Interactive presentations and events that promote dialogue and offer practical ways to work across differences.

Volunteer Opportunities

Share experiences with nonprofits that encourage civic learning, constructive conversation, and local problem solving.

Statewide Connections

Convene organizations each year to share ideas, build relationships, and promote collaboration.

Host an Event in Your Community

- ✓ Free, flexible, and meaningful
- ✓ We can present, host, or co-host
- ✓ 20–90 minute options
- ✓ In-person, online, or hybrid
- ✓ Customized for your audience

Featured Program: BRIDGING DIVIDES

- Why polarization is growing
- How it impacts communities
- Practical ways to find common ground
- Delivered as a short talk, discussion, or combined format

The Citizen Project is sponsored by SAGE, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit and nonpartisan organization. SAGE inspires people over fifty to give forward so future generations can thrive. We welcome opportunities to facilitate intergenerational events.
